

Theatre in the Mind Teacher Seminar Registration

Through funding from the Alabama Humanities Foundation, Adams Foundation, and Young Boozer Family Foundation, ASF offers teacher seminars approved for professional development credits through the University of Alabama. Theatre professionals provide innovative ways to meet state course of study standards through activities linked to ASF's current productions.

January 29, 2010: Exploring Shakespeare's Hamlet

- See a SchoolFest production of ASF's 2010 production of Hamlet
- Learn performance-centered activities for classroom implementation
- Establish links to theatre and language arts curricula
- Discuss plot, character, and language with secondary student interest as the focus

February 12, 2010: An Actor's Approach to Harriet's Return

- See a SchoolFest production of ASF's 2010 production of Harriet's Return
- Explore the complex character of Harriet Tubman from the actor/playwright perspective
- Discuss themes, plot, and the language of Harriet's Return.
